

Puffed Up!

1 Corinthians 4:6-7

February 28, 2007

We can be so full of ourselves that we become puffed up. When we are puffed up with pride and selfishness our relationships will be hindered. Humility is needed in all of our relationships. Every believer has four relationships in which humility must play a part. If one of these relationships is wrong the others will be affected in a negative way.

Paul took _____ for helping others grow spiritually vs. 6a
He had a right relationship with _____

Paul didn't _____ himself with others-the Word will judge vs. 6b
He had a right relationship with _____

Paul warned against the _____ of being puffed up vs. 6c
He had a right relationship with _____

Paul recognized that he _____ everything from God vs. 7
He had a right relationship with _____

Application steps:

I will live for others first and not me first

I will not compare myself to others

I will demonstrate charity

I will remember that everything I have is from God
