

Jesus Loves Me!

We all have the desire to be loved. We want to know that we matter and that our lives have meaning and purpose. We want to find significance. We are looking for acceptance from God, our self and from others. Do we really believe that Jesus loves us? If we do it will impact our view of who we are in Christ and that we truly are significant to God.

We are created to be _____

Sin ruins our _____

_____ is restored by faith

Application steps:

I will believe that Jesus loves me

I will stop trying to find acceptance through the things of this world

I will stop trying to find acceptance through the things of religion

I will trust God to provide everything I need to serve Him
